Dr. Larry Stone Attends 40th Annual Meeting of the American Academy of Esthetic Dentistry

(August 2015 – Doylestown, PA) – Dr. Larry Stone, a dentist with a family and cosmetic dentistry practice in Doylestown, was one of hundreds of dentists attending the 40th annual meeting of the American Academy of Esthetic Dentistry (AAED) held in Telluride, Colorado from August 5-7, 2015. The meeting was hosted by AAED president, Robert R. Winter, DDS and featured numerous outstanding presentations by world-renowned clinicians. Dr. Stone attended all the sessions covering such topics as Interdisciplinary Management of Facial and Occlusal Disharmonies, Direct Composites versus Porcelain Veneers, Current State of Root Form Implants, When Bonding or and Cementing is Used in Ceramic Restoration.

The AAED is known for its commitment to promote the integration of dental esthetics into the total spectrum of oral health care and provide a leadership role for the profession by defining the highest interdisciplinary clinical, scientific, artistic and ethical standards through research, publications and educational presentations.

“I am happy to be able to participate in meetings of this prestigious organization. The AAED truly understands the importance of oral health and offers such world class learning experiences,” notes Dr. Stone. “As a healthcare provider we have a responsibility to maintain the highest standards of care to which the AAED espouses.”
