DR. LAURENCE STONE AND STAFF ATTEND
INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS OF ORAL IMPLANTOLOGISTS CONFERENCE

May 21, 2009 – Doylestown, PA - Laurence Stone, D.D.S., M.A.G.D., with a Doylestown-based practice in Cosmetic and General Dentistry, and his entire office staff attended the International Congress of Oral Implantologists / Temple University Implant Symposium, May 7 – 9 at the Marriott Downtown Hotel, Philadelphia. The event was titled “Implant Restorative Science: The Good, The Bad, The Beautiful.”

In addition to focusing on diagnosis and treatment planning, restoration and esthetics for dental implants, the purpose of this year’s program was to provide current research and clinical applications on dental implant maintenance. Following the program, all members of Dr. Stone’s staff were certified in implant dentistry.

Founded in 1972, The International Congress of Oral Implantologists (ICOI) is devoted to providing implant education to the entire dental team to better serve its patients. The ICOI is the world’s largest dental implant organization and the world’s largest provider of continuing dental implant education.

The ICOI strives to serve the needs of all of its members, including each segment of the dental implant team, and to provide them with high quality education to better serve their patients.
